HOWEVER THE REGISTRATION WILL BE CONFIRMED AFTER THE SPORTING CHECKS THROUGH THE LIST OF CHECKED DRIVERS ONLY.

The registration form sent to you, will have to be signed and delivered to the track during the sporting checks, together with all the necessary documents.
We do not accept registration forms received by mail or fax and/or by post.

During the registration you will not be required to attach the necessary documents for the sporting checks (Friday,15th September) this means that the driver is totally responsible for the preparation, submission and validity of all documents, as well as their compliance according to the Regulation provided by the event. In the event that a driver undergoes the sporting checks but does not hold any of the documents required or if even one of these has expired or does not comply, the driver will not be admitted to the Competition, and the Organizer and the Promoter of the Rok Cup Italia will not be held in no way responsible.

In this regard, we remind that the documents required for the sporting checks are:

- Valid driver's license
- Valid entrant's licence
- Valid driver's medical certificate (Article 5 - DM 18/02/82)

U18 drivers must also submit:
- U18 driver's self-certification
- Driver's identity paper
- Parents' identity papers

All foreign drivers must hold:
- National or International license
- AUTHORIZATION / START PERMISSION issued by their federation

IMPORTANT: This registration does NOT confirm the participation in the competition. Drivers admitted to the sporting checks before the race will be announced in time on the official www.rokcup.com website. The effective participation in the competition will be definitely confirmed only with the completion of the sporting checks according to the documents submitted in the original and it will be sanctioned with the exposure of the list of checked drivers in the race board. The Organizer and the Promoter reserve the right to refuse, at any time in their sole and final judgment, the entries and registrations they deem unsuitable, without the obligation to give any reasons.
